Case No. CIV-S-03-0423-FCD-GMK-P

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Plaintiff in this Case, Barry Lamon, is a State Prisoner in the Custody of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation. The events at issue in this action occurred at California State Prison-Sacramento between March 28, 2002, and August 14, 2002. Plaintiff is Suing Defendants Lytle, Murphy, Loredo, and Scicluna, all of whom were Correctional Staff at California State Prison-Sacramento during that time. Plaintiff's Complaint alleges that Defendants Knew that Plaintiff had a extensive history of Mental illness and Suicide attempts and that Plaintiff was noticeably Mentally degenerating over the Course of the time at issue. Plaintiff further alleges that Staff Psychiatrist's at the Prison issued Written Warning to the Defendants that the Plaintiff was at increased risk of a Suicide attempt and, on August 14, 2002, Following an incident during which the Defendants Physically-abused the Plaintiff, the Plaintiff directly informed all of the Defendants that he Felt immediately Suicidal and wanted to Speak with his regularly-assigned Psychiatric clinician. Lastly, Plaintiff alleges that, because he has a history of assaults against Prison Staff, the Defendants deliberately did not Summon the Plaintiff's Psychiatric Clinician and told Plaintiff "to Go ahead and do us the Fucking Favor." when told by Plaintiff that he was Suicidal. More than Four hours after the Plaintiff told the Defendants that he Felt suicidal no doctors had been Called and the Plaintiff attempted Suicide by Setting his Cell afire, whereby he Sustained the injuries and damages alleged in this Complaint.

The Defendants deny Plaintiff's Claims. Defendants Claim that the Plaintiff never told them he was Suicidal, that he never asked to Speak with a mental health Clinician, and that they had no Knowledge of or reason to Suspect that the Plaintiff was Suicidal.
